

When times are tough, it can be hard to meet all the bills. That's when your real mates come through.

Today Germany told the EU to keep the money it owes them to fund, amongst other things, a €110m electricity inter-connector between Ireland and Wales to help us get cheaper electricity.

So today, thank a German if you meet one.

European Movement Ireland. Just the facts.

